April 18, 2001. WILLOW RIVER CLIMBING HOURS. The cliffs are open to climbing on the following days and times:

Monday–Thursday: 6am to 11pm (anytime the park is open)

Friday: 6am to 12 noon

Saturday: CLOSED

Sunday: 6am to 12 noon

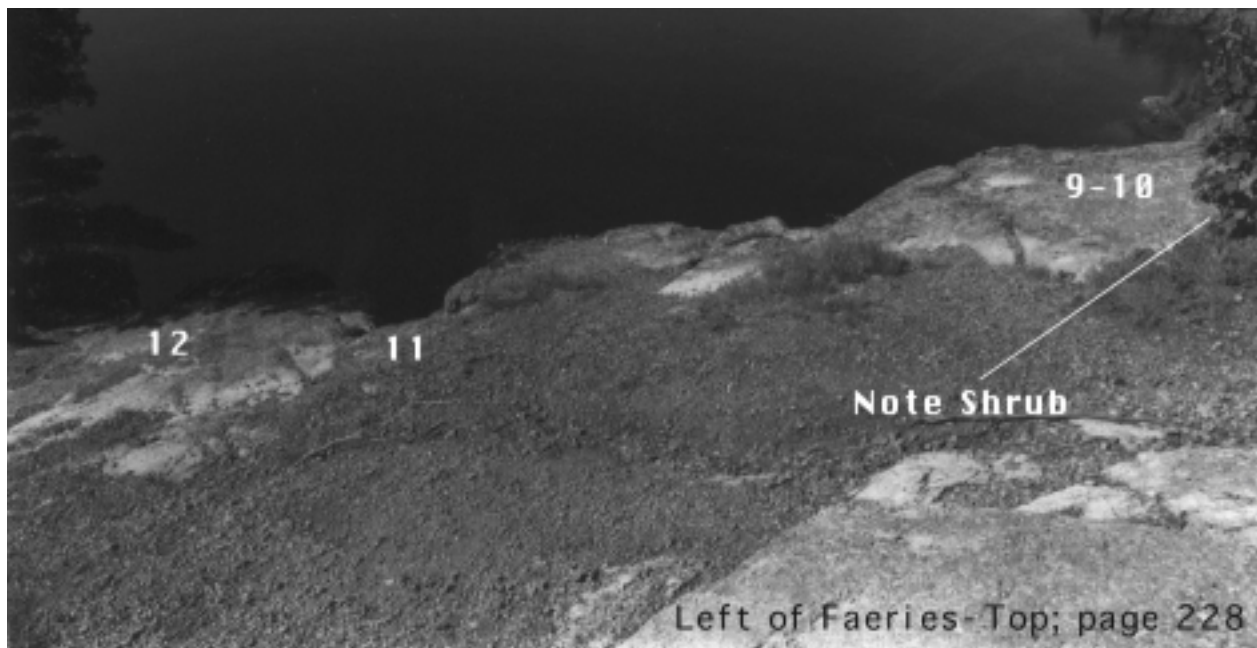

Note that these hours are subject to change. Make sure you check in with the park office the first time you go to climb this year.

March 15, 2001. Red Wing (page 110). Keith Anderson is on Barnburner, not Mississippi Burning. The bolts on Barnburner had been removed as of fall 2000.

March 15, 2001. Shovel Point (page 230-231). The final corner of Did Plato Love Trees (route #7) should be avoided. There was rockfall last year and there are reports of some death blocks still in the corner. From above, this is the corner to the right (landward) of the block that defines the right side of the Faeries slab. Here's a rough sketch:

October 9, 2000. Shovel Point (page 228). The bottom photo is mislabelled. Routes 9 and 10 come up just to the right of where route 8 is marked. Route 8 actually comes up off to the right of the photo. Here is the corrected photo:

October 9, 2000. Carlton Peak (Page 271). The middle and right routes are misnumbered. They should be 25 (middle) and 26 (right).

Sept. 21, 2000. The correct area code for the Minnesota Interstate State Park (=Taylors Falls) is 651, not 612.

July 13, 2000. More reports of bad bolts and cold shuts/carabiners at Red Wing. Don't top rope off of bad anchors! Replace a bad cold shut/carabiner or two! Everybody needs to help maintain this area.

July 13, 2000. Lynn Hill did not make the second ascent of Phlogiston at DL.
